

Simple Acts of Kindness for Kids

(Christmas edition)

Make Christmas cards to send to soldiers overseas	Leave some change in a vending machine for someone else	Hold the door open for someone today	Compliment at least three people	Play a game with a sibling... let them choose the game
Write a thank-you note to a teacher and give it to him/her	Leave a note for the janitor thanking them for cleaning your mess	Make 'blessing bags' and keep them in the car to give out	Take cookies to a fire or police station	Mail a letter to a friend telling them why you like them
Take a breakfast treat to your teacher	Make some playdough and leave it on the neighbor kids' porches	Let someone go ahead of you in line	Leave quarters in the carts at the grocery store	Put positive sticky notes on the bathroom mirrors at school
Smile at everyone you meet today	Clean up a mess that isn't yours (or help someone clean up their mess)	Choose some toys you no longer use to donate	Leave friendly notes in your library books before returning them	Donate some unused books to the doctor's office
Make Christmas cards to send to soldiers overseas	Leave a treat in the mailbox for the mail carrier	Rent a movie- return it with snack money for the next family	Leave some bubbles in a park for others to use	Take a note and a treat to your bus driver
